FIRST CAUSE FOR DISCIPLINE

(Conviction of Substantially Related Crimes)

- 10. Respondent is subject to disciplinary action under sections 490, 4300, subdivision (a), 4301, subdivision (l), in conjunction with California Code of Regulations, title 16, section 1770, in that Respondent was convicted of crimes substantially related to the qualifications, duties and functions of a licensee which to a substantial degree evidence her present or potential unfitness to perform the functions authorized by her license in a manner consistent with the public health, safety, or welfare, as follows:
- a. On or about October 22, 2010, after pleading nolo contendere, Respondent was convicted of one misdemeanor count of violating Penal Code section 459 [petty theft] in the criminal proceeding entitled The People of the State of California v. Thao Lenghiem (Super. Ct. Los Angeles County, 2009, No. GA078526). The Court placed Respondent on three (3) years probation and ordered her to stay away from Rite Aid, 914 Fair Oaks, South Pasadena, California.
- b. The circumstances of the conviction are that on or about November 30, 2009,
 Respondent entered Rite Aid, removed cosmetic items valued at $18, and exited the store without paying for the items.

- c. On or about October 5, 2009, Respondent was convicted by the jury of one felony count of violating Penal Code section 32 [accessory after the fact] in the criminal proceeding The People of the State of California v. Thao Phuong Le Nghiem (Super. Ct. Los Angeles County, 2009, No. GA070684). Respondent was ordered to serve 40 months in state prison, to register as a street gang participant, among others. On or about November 13, 2009, Respondent was released on parole with 1,218 days credit for time served. Respondent filed an appeal. On or about March 18, 2011, the appellate court issued a decision affirming the judgment.
- d. The circumstances surrounding the conviction are that in 2006, Respondent was a member of the Asian street gang "Wah Ching". On or about December 1, 2006, Respondent was in the car with D.D., a Wah Ching gang member who was out on probation, G.Q., Respondent's boyfriend and a former Wah Ching gang member, and another male known as "Paul". The four of them drove up to a popular café Lollicup in San Gabriel. As their car approached the crowd outside the café, D.D. pulled out a gun and fired several rounds at a group of youngsters, injuring one and fatally killing another. On December 5, 2006, while interviewed by the detectives, Respondent denied she was at Lollicup with D.D., G.Q. or Paul the evening of the shooting. On or about August 28, 2007, during a second interview by the detectives, Respondent recanted her previous statements and admitted that she was with the other three on December 1, 2006 and witnessed the shooting, but claimed she was threatened by D.D. thereafter.
